Taken in Dawson, Yukon about 1906. From left, top row – Walter R. Hamilton, Angus D. Ross, George A. Jeckell, Calvin Franklin. Centre – Edmund S. Ironside, Jarvis M Leod, Thomas G. Bragg. Front – G C (G. Carleton) Woodward, Murray Stirton. Taken in Dawson Y.T. in 1905 or '06. November 6th 1960. On this date as far as I know the situation is as follows: A. D. Ross passed away several years ago in Nova Scotia, Jeckell a few years ago when returning to Dawson from a visit to east, Franklin who [died?] in Fairbanks has a son in Seattle, Ironside was drowned on the 'Sophia', M Leod died two years ago while on a visit in Vancouver from Prince Rupert, Bragg about 1920 in Bowmanville, Ontario, and Stirton in '32 in Chicago. Woodward I believe is still living in Seattle and I in West Vancouver.  W. R. H. (All are Canadians, except Woodward who was then U.S. Vice Consul in Dawson.)
