

Would you like to support artistic and cultural development in Yukon? We are collecting applications from people interested in joining the Yukon Arts Centre Corporation Board of Directors (YACC). The deadline for these nominations, using the attached form, is Friday, July 28, 2017.

The Yukon Arts Centre has a territory-wide reach and provides access to the arts for all Yukoners and visitors. The YACC strives to create transformative experiences, inspire meaningful and inclusive conversations, foster creativity and artistic potential for patrons of all ages and backgrounds, and support cultural understanding, diversity, and a vibrant cultural and creative sector.

The Yukon Arts Centre Corporation operates with a twelve member board of directors appointed by the Minister of Tourism and Culture for three-year terms. The board oversees the Centre's mandate which includes the presentation and development of performing and visual arts, as well as arts education and cultural sector development.

Members of the YACC board bring a variety of artistic, administrative, financial, and operational skills to the table, as well as diverse perspectives that represent all areas of Yukon life; their common characteristic is their dedication to arts and community development.

If you would like to contribute your voice to this board, or know someone who would, please fill out a form. If you are nominating someone, please ensure that they agree to the nomination.

For further information, or to submit completed forms:

Phone: Ross Burnet, Arts Advisor, 1-800-661-0408 ext. 8789 or 667-8789

Email: ArtsFund@gov.yk.ca

Mail: Arts Section, Box 2703, Whitehorse, Yukon Y1A 2C6

Drop off: 100 Hanson Street, Whitehorse

For more detailed information, contact Michele Emslie, A/CEO, Yukon Arts Centre

Phone: 667-8577

Email: ceo@yac.ca